

Pro Tips

Monday, 16 July 2007

For all of you that are having trouble with your game, come see Shane or Seth in the Pro Shop. Our two golf professionals have years of experience under their belt and two completely different styles of teaching. Both are available for appointments during the week or on the weekends depending on your schedule. Single lessons or series of lessons are available at reasonable prices; so if you just can't seem to hit that flop shot that lands softly near the pin or that drive that stays in bounds, check in with our teaching staff and start winning some money out there! ...

For all of you that are having trouble with your game, come see Shane or Seth in the Pro Shop. Our two golf professionals have years of experience under their belt and two completely different styles of teaching. Both are available for appointments during the week or on the weekends depending on your schedule. Single lessons or series of lessons are available at reasonable prices; so if you just can't seem to hit that flop shot that lands softly near the pin or that drive that stays in bounds, check in with our teaching staff and start winning some money out there!! You will also notice the flyer for Junior golf camps with Seth included in your mailer. Children ages 8 – 17 can get started on the road to good golf with Seth's comprehensive and fun style of teaching. Spots are filling up fast so give Seth a call to reserve a place for your children.

Head Golf Professional
Shane Coney